Battery on Romero Canyon Road

Saturday, May 25, 11:27 am – Deputies Delgadillo and Woodill were dispatched to Romero Canyon Road to speak with a man who claimed his employer punched him in the face. The man said that earlier that morning he and his employer got into an argument over work-related issues. The employer allegedly punched the victim twice, and after being separated by other employees the victim was asked to leave. He demanded he be paid for his work, and the employer paid him cash. The employer admitted they had gotten into an argument, but stated that he was so upset he did not remember punching the man. Witnesses to the argument stated that the employer and the employee were “shoving each other” and the employer did indeed punch the victim.

The victim did not want to prosecute the employer, so the incident was only documented.

has kept them healthy and energetic. Much needed energy it seems: Shari's 19-year-old sons Max and Miles are the family's fifth generation of twins! Shari also has an 11-year-old daughter, Mattea, who attends MUS, and Judi's kids Taryn and Tanner attend Santa Barbara Junior High School. “We're the real deal; we've been living this lifestyle,” Judi said.

In last week's In Business column (MJ #14/22) we reported that the nine stylists working at Salon Du Mont are staff members of the salon. They are, in fact, independent contractors. Four of the stylists are previous salon owners, but are not previous owners of Salon Du Mont. My
